SMR Reference	Name	Description	Type	Council	Easting	Northing
NJ44NE0033	Mains Of Auchoynergie	Site of a now destroyed limekiln that is depicted on the 1846 1st edition OS map but not on the 1888 2nd edition one.	Documentary Record Only	Moray	345325	849558
NJ44NE0034	Mains Of Birkenburn	Farmstead still in use that is depicted on the 1846 1st edition OS map.	Standing Structure	Moray	345172	848411
NJ44NE0038	Birken Burn	A building, with an enclosure to its north, is depicted as disused on the OS map of 1846. The enclosure is depicted on the later 1888 edition but not the building, the area of which now lies within woodland. It is unknown if anything survives.	Documentary Record Only	Moray	345448	848075
NJ44NE0048	Greenwood	This drainage system is shown on the 1901 edition of the OS map. Its purpose is not immediately clear and remains an interesting question.	Documentary Record Only	Moray	345389	847130
NJ44NW0005	North Whiteley	Possible cairn. A hollowed mound surviving as a grassy rim, 2m wide; probably a cairn although its position on a slope is not particularly good.	Standing Structure	Moray	343208	847033
NJ44NW0016	Woodhead	Scant remains of small farmstead or houses. Depicted on the 1867 1st edition OS map as an L-shaped steading open to the SE with a rectangular farmhouse with attached enclosure and well to the S.	Standing Structure	Moray	343807	845906
NJ44NW0032	Backmuir	The farmstead of Backmuir is depicted on the OS map of 1846 as three long single building ranges forming an almost U-shape with a central court open to the north. A millpond lies to the east and a building to the south.	Standing Structure	Moray	344984	847712
NJ44NW0033	Greenwood	The farmstead of Greenwood is depicted on the OS map of 1846 as Greentown. It has a rectangular steading with central open court with a small building attached to the NW side. A millpond lies to the SE.	Standing Structure	Moray	344726	847078
NJ44NW0036	Cairds Wood	Site of a now destroyed pile of stones that is depicted on the 1846 1st edition OS map but not on the 1888 2nd edition one.	Documentary Record Only	Moray	343316	847396
NJ44NW0038	North Whiteley	Site of two now destroyed ponds with sluices that supplied a lade running down to presumably a mill located within the steading buildings of North Whiteley. The ponds are depicted on both the 1846 1st edition OS map and the 1888 2nd edition one.	Documentary Record Only	Moray	343621	847192

NJ44NW0047	Greens Of Achorties	Site of a croft depicted on the 1st edition OS map of 1846 only, as two small parallel buildings.	Documentary Record Only	Moray	343528	848355
NJ44NW0048	Blackhillock	Small farmstead, depicted on the 1st edition OS map of 1846 an L-plan steading. On the 2nd edition map of 1888, the steading has been enlarged to a U-plan building with a farmhouse with attached square enclosure having been added to the southeast.	Standing Structure	Moray	343517	848185
NJ44NW0049	Blackhillock	Farmstead, depicted on the 1st edition OS map of 1846 as a rectangular steading and square enclosure, with two further buildings and a square enclosure with a building on its north and south sides lying to the south.	Standing Structure	Moray	343469	848060
NJ45NE0004	Bossy Hillocks	Natural glacial mounds. Nil antiquity.	Earthwork	Moray	348964	857296
NJ45NE0010	Chapel Hill	Site of chapel of which there is now no trace. No further information. This site may be the site referred to by NJ45NE0007 although the area is known as Chapel Hill. A watching brief in 2001 supervised the excavation of a stretch of c.200m of pipeline.	Documentary Record Only	Moray	349727	858543
NJ45NE0011	Craibstone, Deskford	Remains of lime works and kilns depicted on the OS 1st and 2nd edition maps. Work at the site ceased about the time of World War II and the quarry is now water-filled. In the 1990s the site was surveyed by the Cullen, Deskford and Portknockie Heritage group, who also recorded recollections of those who had worked there. Subsequent recording was also carried out by members of the Scottish Vernacular Buildings Working Group.	Standing Structure	Moray	349683	859148
NJ45NE0016	Myreside	A lime kiln is depicted on the 1st edition OS map but is not visible on the 1959 map. The area is now afforested.	Standing Structure	Moray	348829	857541
NJ45NE0033	Tillybreadless	A small building is depicted on the OS map of 1846 at this location but not on the later 1888 edition.	Documentary Record Only	Moray	348955	857909
NJ45NE0034	Longlandburn	The farmstead of Longlandburn is depicted on the OS map of 1847 as having two long ranges roughly E/W orientated. There is a single building at the western side of the north one, possibly a mill, and an L-shaped building to the SE of the southern one. There is also another possible	Standing Structure	Moray	349114	858527 building to the west. A lade leads to the mill from a pond in the west. By 1888 the farmstead has become U-shaped with an open court to the east. The configuration is now similar but the court has been built over and there is another building to the northwest. The mill pond is no longer depicted.

NJ45NE0035	Clochmacriech	Clochmacriech is depicted on the OS map of 1846 as an L-shaped farmstead with a smaller L-shaped building to the north. A small single building with an enclosure lies slightly further north. To the east is a mill dam with lade and sluice leading to the S.	Standing Structure	Moray	349469	858041
NJ45NE0041	Myrietown	Remains of two mill ponds, two dams and a lade between them which is depicted on the 1846 1st edition OS map. They lie to the north of the farm itself, which is depicted on the OS map of 1846 as a roughly U-shaped steading with open court to the south.	Earthwork	Moray	349626	856422
NJ45NE0046	Raemore	Farmstead still in use. On the 1st edition OS map it is shown as an almost completely enclosed rectangular structure with an extension to the west. A mill-pond, mill dam and sluice are shown to the west. By the 2nd edition OS map the eastern range has been removed and a group of three outbuildings are shown on the site. The 2005 map shows that these buildings continue in use with modifications. The mill-pond is not shown.	Standing Structure	Moray	349690	859993
NJ45NE0047	Raemore	Site of a now destroyed milestone shown on both the 1st and 2nd edition OS maps. It was inscribed -CULLEN 5-.	Documentary Record Only	Moray	349936	859965
NJ45NE0055	Over Windyhills	Farmstead depicted on the 1846 1st edition OS map as a square steading with central open courtyard and enclosure to the E.	Standing Structure	Moray	349242	856744
NJ45NE0065	Mains Of Balnamoon	Farmstead, still in use, depicted on OS 1st and 2nd edition maps at which time it was named Goukstone. The 1st edition shows a long L plan range with a small building within the court, and a garden enclosure and mill dam with sluice to the west.	Documentary Record Only	Moray	348935	856135
NJ45SE0005*	Clerkseat	There were several defensive works on the Haugh of Isla. The farmer says that in dry spells a rectangular area of parched grass shows up on the south slope of the rise. This possibly indicates the presence of building	Earthwork	Moray	347394	851638 foundations although nothing has been ploughed up. There is a very slight low bank on the south base of the rise.

NJ45SE0009	Mains Of Paithnick	Site of manor. No visible remains, but excavation may yield information.	Documentary Record Only	Moray	347567	852801
NJ45SE0010	Croix Well	Site of well of which there is now no trace. It is depicted on the OS 1st and 2nd edition maps.	Documentary Record Only	Moray	348098	851133
NJ45SE0013	Lady Well	Lady Well; a covered stone-built well set into a slope; up until 60 years ago was the only source of water for nearby area.	Standing Structure	Moray	347926	851484
NJ45SE0017	Daughs Of Paithnick	A small farmstead is depicted at this location on both the OS maps of 1867 and 1888. It is an L-shaped structure orientated NW/SE with a small enclosure attached to the SE side. A small single building lies to the west. It is unknown if anything still survives.	Standing Structure	Moray	347894	853534
NJ45SE0018	Daughs Of Paithnick	A house and enclosure are depicted at this position on the OS map of 1888. The building is oriented NW/SE and has a small garden enclosure attached to the south side. It is no longer visible on present maps.	Documentary Record Only	Moray	348035	853558
NJ45SE0020	Gallowhill Wood	A possible low hut platform lies on the southwest side of Gallowhill, just c.20m west and below a track. It is c.6m in diameter and 0.10-0.15m high. The area is covered in rough grass and some heather and the ground drops slightly.	Standing Structure	Moray	347898	852290
NJ45SE0021	Gallowhill	The remains of an old road or trackway run across the lower west facing steep slope of Gallowhill. It survives in areas as a double bank with a ditch on the lower side. In other parts it appears as a raised causeway with ditches on either side.	Standing Structure	Moray	348187	852878
NJ45SE0022	Bear Hill	A circular feature with a raised bank, which from a distance was thought to be a hut circle, proved to be smaller and deeper on close inspection. It has a dished centre about 1m deep with the remains of a tree root off centre. It is 6m in diameter with what looked like an entrance on the NW side though this may be coincidental. It could be a tree hole or a 'bomb crater' but cause or purpose not really known.	Standing Structure	Moray	348024	852215

NJ56SE0066	Cobo Cottage	Site of a now destroyed croft that is depicted on the 1867 1st edition OS map. The map shows a L-shaped building with a well. By the 1888 2nd edition map this building has separated into two rectangular buildings.	Documentary Record Only	Aberdeenshire	354863	863927
NJ56SE0067	Cobo Cottage	Site of a now destroyed farmstead that is depicted on the 1867 1st edition OS map. The map shows three rectangular buildings set in a U-shape, one of which has an attached rectangular enclosure. By the 1888 2nd edition map the buildings have been reduced.	Documentary Record Only	Aberdeenshire	355116	863852
NJ56SE0068	Beechbank	The farmstead is still in use. It is named on the 1st edition OS map of 1867 as 'Rumblingspots', and is depicted as a square steading with central courtyard and entranceway at the southwest corner; a sluice and mill dam lie to south. On the 2nd edition of 1888 it is named as Beech Bank; 2 small buildings, one with attached enclosure, have been added to the south. The southeast and west wings of the original steading appear to survive, as does one of the small buildings to the south. Two new buildings have been added to the west.	Standing Structure	Aberdeenshire	356026	864216
NJ56SE0069	Beechbank	Site of a sluice and milldam depicted on the 1st edition OS map 1867. Only the milldam is depicted on the 2nd edition of 1888. No visible trace remains.	Documentary Record Only	Aberdeenshire	355912	863889
NJ56SE0074	Porterstown	Farmstead shown on the 1st edition OS map of 1867 as a group of 3 rectangular buildings around a square. On the 2nd edition of 1888, the E and W buildings have been formed into a U-plan building open to the S with the third rectangular building surviving.	Standing Structure	Aberdeenshire	355070	864547

NJ56SW0004	Towie	A small food vessel; no further information.	Artefact	Moray	353000	863000
NJ56SW0018	Mill Of Berryhillock	Early 19th century mill. It is a 2-storey and attic rubble building on a T-plan with a pyramidal roofed kiln forming the downstroke of the T. There is an overshoot wood and iron wheel.	Standing Structure	Moray	350372	860739
NJ56SW0021	Castle Of Skeith	Site of castle. The OS Name Book recorded the site of the castle on the west side of the present farm steading, noting that a small vestige of the ruin formed part of the north end garden wall. OS site visit in 1961 found no certain trace of the castle found. A stretch of c,8m of the west and north wall of the existing garden is of mortared rubble masonry c.2m high but featureless and it is not possible to say if it was part of the castle or courtyard. A low bank or dark trace of a ditch is visible on a vertical aerial photograph taken in 1976 surrounding the site of the castle. The earliest cartographic reference to the castle appears to be a tower house named Skyith on Pont's map of 1580-90, although this predates a date stone of 1687 incorporated into the present farmhouse (NJ56SW0075). The castle was ruinous by the 1790s (Statistical Account of 1791-9).	Documentary Record Only	Moray	350409	860363
NJ56SW0022	Chapel Haugh	Site of chapel. No earlier reference than 1732 can be found for this chapel. Now no trace. Human remains were found in the area some time before 1846.	Documentary Record Only	Moray	350276	860515
NJ56SW0025	Hallyards, Portsoy	Findspot of barrel jar, discovered while trenching with a JCB. It measures 134mm tall, with 70mm basal diameter, 100mm rim diameter, and is 9mm thick at the rim. It was found in a rubbish pit.	Artefact	Aberdeenshire	354878	862620
NJ56SW0032	Wairdleys	Site of a farmstead depicted on the 1st and 2nd edition OS maps. The farm is shown as a rectangular building with a square enclosure to the W and a well to the NE.	Documentary Record Only	Moray	350087	860636
NJ56SW0033	Newton	Remains of a farmstead which is depicted on the 1867 1st edition OS map. The map shows a U-shaped range of buildings opposite the farmhouse. By the time of the 2nd edition only one L-shaped building, presumably part of the original range, remains.	Standing Structure	Aberdeenshire	354302	861402

NJ56SW0073	Mains Of Skeith	Site of a building, possibly a mill, marked on the 1st and 2nd edition OS maps.	Documentary Record Only	Moray	350374	860625
NJ56SW0075	Mains Of Skeith	Farmstead still in use. On the 1st edition OS map it is shown as an L-shaped building with three long rectangular outbuildings to the east and a mill-pond, mill dam and lade also to the east. By the 2nd edition OS map the L-shaped building and one of the long rectangular buildings have been connected to form a larger structure. The 2005 map shows these structures still in use with modifications. The mill-pond is not shown, but the mill lade is still shown. Following demolition of the steading, an archaeological watching brief was carried out September 2006 during groundworks for a new building, but no archaeological features were observed apart from stone and ceramic land drains of late 19th and early 20th century date that crossed the area.	Standing Structure	Moray	350512	860314
NJ56SW0076	Hollanbush	Site of a now destroyed croft shown only on the 1st edition OS map. It is shown as an L-shaped structure with a square enclosure to the east.	Documentary Record Only	Moray	351030	860160
NJ56SW0077	Hollanbush	Croft still in use. It is shown on both the 1st and 2nd edition OS maps as a rectangular structure, on the 2nd edition it is shown as having an extension to the north. The 2005 map shows that this structure survives in use.	Standing Structure	Moray	351261	860076
NJ56SW0078	Cairntown	Site of a now destroyed farmstead that is depicted on the 1867 1st edition OS map. The map shows two rectangular buildings, a roofless rectangular building and possibly a roofless L-shape extension to one of the rectangular buildings.	Documentary Record Only	Aberdeenshire	354427	864000
NJ56SW0079	Cairntown	Site of a now destroyed limekiln that is depicted on the 1867 1st edition OS map but not on the 1888 2nd edition one.	Documentary Record Only	Aberdeenshire	354303	863524
NJ56SW0080	Cairntown	Farmstead still in use that is depicted on the 1867 1st edition OS map. NJ44NE0003	Mains of Birkenburn	Site of manor. No visible remains, but excavation may yield information.	Documentary Record Only	Moray	345040	848530
NJ44NE0013	Balloch Wood	A series of six small cairns are depicted on the OS map of both 1867 and 1888. They mark the division between the parishes of Grange and Keith. They lie at NJ4701 5013, NJ4724 4965, NJ4710 4994, NJ4718 4976, NJ4734 4951 and NJ4735 4949. It is uncertain if they all still exist. Part of the area is now afforested.	Documentary Record Only	Moray	347014	850137
NJ44NE0050	Military Road	The area to the west of the military road at this point appears to contain rig and furrow going down the slope and, above this, possible platforms or enclosures covering approximately 1 acre.	Earthwork	Moray	345658	847744
NJ44NE0051	Glen of Coachford	Machine mounding revealed an area of disturbed stones which appears to be structural. The stones appear to be covered by peat growth which indicates considerable age. The feature is probably a clearance cairn and it is set at a break of slope.	Standing Structure	Moray	345869	847629
NJ44NW0001	Pitlurg Castle	Remains of castle, which was surrounded by a deep ditch. Only the circular tower remains of a probable L or Z shaped building. This is now unroofed, and has been utilized as a dovecot, but sufficient architectural details remain to determine its 16th century date. No sign of a ditch, or of a building to the W, but that there has been a substantial structure to the E, since quarried away, is indicated by a rebuilt doorway, and the remains of a stone staircase leading to the second floor of the tower in its SE arc. Traces of building footings to the S of the tower where two	Standing Structure	Moray	343579	845562 rectangular buildings are shown on the OS 25 inch, probably the remains of modern farm buildings.

NJ44NW0002	Edintore	A robbed cairn surviving as a stony, turf-covered rim of debris. The interior is uneven and shows evidence of having been quarried out. There is no trace of a kerb or of a prostrate stone mentioned in 1868 by ONB.	Standing Structure	Moray	342897	846662
NJ44NW0004 *	North Whiteley	A large cairn, built on artificial stone platform, it is 24m in diameter and 0.4m high, and lies on the shoulder of a hill with open views to the north and east. The interior has been dug into, and gorse grows over the area.	Standing Structure	Moray	343056	847304
NJ44NW0010	Blackhillock	Limekilns dating from the 19th Century. A pair of single draw kilns of rubble construction with semi-circular, arched drawholes. Part of the Blackhillock Lime Works, depicted on the 1st edition OS map of 1867.	Standing Structure	Moray	343909	848234
NJ44NW0014	Edintore	Remains of a farmstead which is not depicted on the 1st or 2nd edition OS maps.	Standing Structure	Moray	343023	846507
NJ44NW0015	Cairds Wood	Remains of a possible cairn. A good situation for a cairn with others in the vicinity. There is also a boundary stone at the corner of the field.	Standing Structure	Moray	342856	846905
NJ44NW0018	Tarnash	The remains of a WWII pillbox. The walls are corrugated iron filled with concrete approx. 14" thick with an internal diameter of 5 feet.	Standing Structure	Moray	343902	849103
NJ44NW0020	Denburn	During WWII, 45 gallon tar and petrol drums were used to form a road block here.	Documentary Record Only	Moray	343600	849013
NJ44NW0037	Cairds Wood	Site of two piles of sods that are depicted on the 1846 1st edition OS map but not on the 1888 2nd edition map.	Documentary Record Only	Moray	343153	847264
NJ44NW0039	Cairds Wood	Site of seven boundary stones that are depicted on the 1888 2nd edition OS map but not on the 1846 1st edition one.	Documentary Record Only	Moray	342912	847503
NJ44NW0040	Birkenburn Quarry	Remains of a disused quarry that is depicted on the 1888 2nd edition OS map but not on the 1846 1st edition one.	Earthwork	Moray	344563	848665

NJ44NW0041	Blackhillock	Site of two 'shafts' that are depicted on the 1888 2nd edition OS map but not on the 1846 1st edition map. The two shafts may relate to the lime works to the south.	Documentary Record Only	Moray	343939	848467
NJ44NW0042	Dunnyduff	A low bank approximately 0.5m high by 2m across runs roughly east-west from the edge of the wood. Its purpose is unknown. Recorded by the Forestry Commission, 2006.	Earthwork	Moray	344955	849540
NJ44NW0050	Dunnyduff Wood	Remains of gravel pit shown on 2nd edition OS map of 1901.	Earthwork	Moray	344887	849691
NJ44NW0052	Edintore	A desk-based assessment and walkover survey were carried out over this area in 2010 by Highland Archaeology Services to provide baseline information on cultural heritage features that might be affected by a proposed wind farm at Edintore. The site occupies improved agricultural land and any buried archaeology is likely to have been truncated by past ploughing. However, there are some indications of possible Neolithic and / or Bronze Age activity. A small 20th Century quarry, still actively in use, was also recorded. A precautionary watching brief was recommended as result of this work over any topsoil removal for construction in two areas where cairns have previously been recorded (NJ44NW0002 and NJ44NW0015). Visual impacts on surrounding sites are being assessed separately. A watching brief was carried out by AOC in November 2012 on 50 machine dug trial pits at various points along the proposed wind farm tracks and turbine locations. No archaeological features or artefacts were recorded from any of the trial pit areas. A watching brief monitoring all ground-breaking works associated with the development was carried out from August 2015 to January 2016. No archaeological features or artefacts of archaeological significance were identified during the watching brief.	Documentary Record Only	Moray	342439	846706
NJ44NW0053	Braehead Quarry	Remains of disused quarry and lime kilns at Braehead. A small-scale lime works which operated for a limited time. The first record of the site is on the 2nd Edition OS map 1905, however the Lime Works are recorded as disused. The quarry is not depicted on the 1st Edition OS map 1872. A building survey was carried out in 2012 prior to the redevelopment of the kilns to a dwelling house. A complex of three lime kilns are depicted on the 2nd Edition map, one on the north face of the	Documentary Record Only	Moray	342515	849104 structure and two kilns along the west extent. All three arched openings still existed on the site at the time of the survey. The survey revealed that the structure at Breahead was a flare kiln, with burns and steams (to divert water away from the kiln) running along both sides of the kilns.

NJ44NW0055	North Whiteley	Well or spring on the boundary of North Whiteley Farm, depicted on OS 1st/2nd edition maps. It appears to have been capped for c.50-60 years.	Standing Structure	Moray	343030	847715
NJ44NW0056	Cairds Wood	A number of depressions have been suggested to be the remains of cairns. The largest of the depressions is c. 12 in diameter, the smallest 5m in diameter. Within the larger are stones which are probably from field clearance.	Standing Structure	Moray	342921	846947
NJ44NW0057	North Whiteley	Earthworks suggested to be the remains of a cairn.	Earthwork	Moray	343095	847662
NJ45NE0002	Myretown	Site of manor. No visible remains, but excavation may yield information.	Documentary Record Only	Moray	349600	856380
NJ45NE0007	Myreton	Site of chapel; no trace and no further information. This may be confused with site NJ45NE0010, although at NJ4978 5654 there is a pale cropmark showing with a possible rectilinear shape inside.	Documentary Record Only	Moray	349814	856537
NJ45NE0008	Grey Cairn	Site of cairn; was of great size and was a boundary point between Grange and Deskford. No remains survive and no further information.	Documentary Record Only	Moray	348547	857750
NJ45NE0009	Myreside	On the hillside opposite the Grey Cairn (NJ45NE0008) there were two cairns; now no trace and no further information.	Documentary Record Only	Moray	348500	857700
NJ45NE0028	Upper Craibstone	A small farmstead is depicted at this position on the OS map of 1867. It is unknown if anything survives.	Documentary Record Only	Moray	348908	859181
NJ45NE0029	Balnamoon	Remains of a mill lead, pond and sluice that is depicted on the 1867 1st edition OS map. The lead controlled the water flow to the farmstead.	Earthwork	Moray	348009	855652
NJ45NE0030	Balnamoon	Site of a now destroyed lime kiln that is depicted only on the 1867 1st edition OS map lay at NJ4815 5553. The remains of a later limekiln lie c200m to the northwest.	Standing Structure	Moray	348164	855538

NJ45NE0031	East Balnamoon	Remains of a farmstead that is depicted on the 1867 1st edition OS map. It shows four rectangular buildings with an enclosure. By 1888 when the next edition OS map was published a mill had been added with a lade and pond running in from the west.	Standing Structure	Moray	348323	856450
NJ45NE0036	Bowie Burn	A limekiln is depicted on the south side of the Bowie Burn on the OS map of 1846 but not on the later 1888 edition. It is unknown if anything survives.	Documentary Record Only	Moray	348641	856329
NJ45NE0037	Wester Windyhill	A limekiln is depicted on the OS map of 1846, as lying c.95m to the south of Wester Windyhill, but not on the later edition of 1888. It is unknown if anything survives.	Documentary Record Only	Moray	348606	857044
NJ45NE0038	Wester Windyhill	The farmstead of Wester Windyhill is still in use, and is depicted as a U-shaped steading with open court to the east on both the OS maps of 1845 and 1888. A mill pond lies to the west. It still has the same configuration but the pond is no longer visible.	Standing Structure	Moray	348573	857159
NJ45NE0063	Balnamoon	Site of a croft depicted on the OS 1st and 2nd edition maps. The 1st edition shows a small rectangular building. By the time of the 2nd edition map this had been extended to a longer building of three compartments with an attached enclosure to the SE. None of these features appear on current OS maps.	Documentary Record Only	Moray	348280	856781
NJ45SE0001	Gallowhill	Stone clearance heaps; about a dozen stony mounds were seen in this area; no trace of an associated field system. The area is marked as cairns on the OS maps of 1846 and 1888. Now almost all have disappeared due to planting and heavy grazing by cattle.	Standing Structure	Moray	348366	852634
NJ45SE0002 *	Muiryfold, Grange	Remains of a Roman camp of the 120 acre class (Severan). The camp at Muiryfold was first recorded from the air in 1959, lying to the east of Keith, north of the River Isla close to the Pass of Grange, and about 2.5 km east of Auchinhove. It is situated on land that slopes gently from Gallow Hill to the north west to the Burn of Braco to the south east, a tributary of the River Isla. It lies in a series of improved pasture and arable fields surrounding the farm of Muiryfold, and no trace is visible on the ground. It is not quite rectangular in form, measuring about 784m from north west to south east by 522m transversely and encloses just over	Crop Mark (Includes Soil Mark)	Moray	348828	852095

		41ha. Entrance gaps protected by tituli are visible in the centre of the south east side and at two points in the south west side, suggesting that the camps had six gates. St Joseph excavated two small trenches in 1959, in the north west and south east sides, and he recorded that the ditch measured up to 3.3m in width and 1.3m in depth. A trapezoidal dressed stone, 400mm x 300mm x 130mm thick with flat bottomed hole 170mm diameter and 30mm deep cut in one face has been found on the site. It was ploughed up by the farmer and reported to Ian Keillar.
NJ45SE0004 *	Auchinhove	The Roman camp at Auchinhove was first recorded from the air in 1949. The camp has been dated to the Flavian period, owing to the presence of a Stracathro-type gate in its east side. The camp lies in a series of arable fields to the south of the A95 from Banff to Keith. Parts of the three sides are known air photographs with a corner suggesting the position of the fourth, along the side of the road. There is an external clavicula and oblique traverse entrance on the east-southeast side. The camp measures some 337m from the north-northeast to south-southwest by 328m transversely and encloses some 10.9 ha. J. K. S. St Joseph conducted excavations on several occasions, recording that the ditch on the south-southeast side was small, measuring only 0.85m in width and 0.7m in depth. He also excavated three other trenches on the south-southeast side with slightly smaller dimensions and five further trenches across the south-southwest side to establish its location several years later. The position of the south side was established by 'digging'. The surface of the ploughed field very stony.	Crop Mark (Includes Soil Mark)	Moray	346190	851700

NJ45SE0012	Virgin Mary's Chapel, Davoch Of Grange	Graveyard, and site of chapel of ease dedicated to the Virgin Mary. The chapel was subsequently a parish church, which was in a poor state by 1791 and was replaced by the present church (NJ45SE0003) to the East in 1795. The previous existence is still known locally, although there is nearly no trace. The graveyard is enclosed by a rectangular wall. It is partially enclosed at the North by cast-iron spearhead railings on a low coped wall and with the entrance flanked by plain	Standing Structure	Moray	347920	851584

Some 18th century memorials and tombstones removed from the ruins of the old church in 1833, and are re-set in a coped rubble plinth near the entrance.
NJ45SE0019	Gallowhill	The remains of two hut circles lie on the south side of Gallowhill Wood. They lie within a birch wood. Both have lost most of their south sides but the entrances would appear to have been there. One stands at NJ4824 5243 with a diameter of c10m with the wall spread to c1.5m and standing to c0.30m in height. The other at NJ4817 5254, with similar measurements, lies c15m to the east of the former. The walls are now grass-covered, although a few stones are visible on the edge, and there are some trees growing both within and on the features.	Standing Structure	Moray	348326	852488
NJ45SE0024	Croft of Ardrone	A small house with attached enclosure to the north is depicted on the OS map of 1867. By the 1888 edition on the building is visible. Nothing is indicated at this site on modern maps.	Documentary Record Only	Moray	346510	850205
NJ45SE0029	Berryleys	Site of a now destroyed mill lade with two dams and millponds that are depicted on the 1867 1st edition and 1888 2nd edition OS maps. The lade runs from Chapelhill to a large millpond SE of Foggiesmoss farm, continuing S through a second pond.	Documentary Record Only	Moray	346621	853526
NJ45SE0037	Burnmouth	Burnmouth is depicted on the OS map of 1846 as two small buildings within an enclosure to the south of the road. Another building lies slightly further south which is probably a mill as a lade leads to it from two ponds further south.	Standing Structure	Moray	348414	850699
NJ45SE0038	Gardenhead Croft	The remains of a small croft stand 210m to the east of Gardenhead. It is depicted on the OS map of 1846 and 1888 as a building with an attached enclosure to the south.	Standing Structure	Moray	348030	850692
NJ45SE0040	Mill of Wood Gatehouse	A mill, orientated N/S, lying close to the railway, is depicted on the 1888 2nd edition OS map but not on the 1846 1st edition one. A house now stands on this site but, as it is on a different orientation from the mill, it would appear to be of a later build.	Documentary Record Only	Moray	345865	851266

NJ45SE0041	Muiryfold	Farmstead still in use. The 1867 1st edition OS map shows the farmstead as an almost completely enclosed rectangular court, in which there is a small square structure. An outbuilding and two mill dams lie to the north. By the 1888 2nd edition OS map, the northernmost of the mill dams is not shown.	Standing Structure	Moray	348619	852304
NJ45SE0045	Meikle Ardrone	Farmstead still in use. The 1st edition OS map shows a C-shaped building with the court open to the south-east and an extension to the east. The 2nd edition of 1888 shows that the extension has been modified and that the main building has an almost completely enclosed court. There are two outbuildings shown to the south-east. The 2005 map shows that these buildings, apart from an outbuilding to the south-east which is marked as disused, are all surviving in modified form.	Standing Structure	Moray	345776	850674

NJ56SW0027	Leitchestown, Deskford	Remains of settlement site. The remains of possible defensive ditches were uncovered near the site where the Deskford carnyx (NJ56SW0012) was found. Stake holes from a possible fence line were also noted. A disturbed cremation pit and a possible sherd were also found.	Standing Structure	Moray	352114	863557
NJ56SW0028	Newpark-Hughies Knowe	Remains of two possible hut circles; also scattered stone clearance heaps; all very denuded.	Standing Structure	Aberdeenshire	354008	862276
NJ56SW0030	Milton	Faint trace of a possible ring ditch; other indeterminate cropmarks also visible on a vertical aerial photograph. In 2001 a watching brief was undertaken in advance of the installation of a water pipeline. The pipeline corridor had been cleared and the trench excavated prior to the arrival of the archaeologist. A visual inspection of the area stripped of topsoil failed to reveal any trace of the crop marks.	Crop Mark (Includes Soil Mark)	Moray	351827	863258
NJ56SW0039	Newton	Two buildings and an enclosure are depicted on the 1864 1st edition OS map. It shows a rectangular and a square building with an attached enclosure to the west. The remains of the enclosure and the larger rectangular building still survive.	Documentary Record Only	Aberdeenshire	354579	861365
NJ56SW0057	Ley Farm	A watching brief was carried out in August 2015 by Cameron Archaeology prior to the erection of a turbine and associated ancillary infrastructure. Several stone and ceramic drains were recorded in the subsoil, but no features of archaeological significance were identified during the watching brief. One fragment of unworked flint was recovered from the topsoil.	Documentary Record Only	Aberdeenshire	353586	863745
NJ56SW0059	Knowes Of Carestown	Site of a now destroyed farmstead that is depicted on the 1867 1st edition and 1888 2nd edition OS maps. They show a walled garden, and two rectangular buildings on either side of a walled courtyard. A well lies to the SE.	Documentary Record Only	Moray	351749	861674
